Kinney will probably be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the Democratic side, our esteemed contemporary up at Covins gives him this savage dig under the short ribs: "Be it known that Abbot is a riparian advocate, and we do not believe he will stand a ghost of a chance at the convention, and we are sure he would not get the votes of the intelligent irrigators, if nominated. Abbot Kinney out off his political head, as far as Galifornia is concerned, when he joined issues with his riparian father-in-law. His doom is sealed."

Yen verily, and that of all the other Democratic aspirants, riparian, antimized aspirants, riparian, antimized aspirants, riparian, antimized for the democratic aspirants, antimized and content of the more earnest because I rispeak in New York. In the South the party has followed after the Moabitish woman of expendiency. If commerce were attracted phere, if trade were free, New York would soon be the grattest city in the whole world."

In conclusion, Senator Vance paid a glowing tribute to the efforts in behalf of liberty now being made by Gladstone and Parnell, and in this his example was followed by all the other appearance were attracted phere, if trade were free, New York would soon be the grattest city in the whole world."

A PLUCKY GIRL. Floating Half an Hour Before Was Rescued.

Long Beach narrowly missed a drowning accident Sunday. Miss Anna Clapp, the vivacious daughter of I. B. Clapp Passadena, was enjoying a bath, between 4 and 5 p. m., when she got out beyond the breakers, and was caught by a strong outward current. Finding it beyond ber power to get back to shore, the plucky girl leaned back and flosted, making signals of distress. The crowd on the beach was paralyzed.

At last, W. G. Bradshaw, bookkeeper for the Harper & Reynolds Company of this city, got a fisherman's boat, made temporary row-locks of rope, and finally got out and rescued Miss Clapp, after she had been adrift half an hour. Coming in, the boat was upsets among the breakers, but the occupants got ashore safely. Miss Clapp, who is about 18 years old, showed rare presence of mind, to which she owes her life.

and is one of the most common of the pal memory diseases. It is a dangerous disease as it prevents the oxygenation of the blood and in many cases, particularly after it passes into the chronic stage, the substance of the lungs becomes seriously involved giving rise to what is very moperly called Bronehial Consumption. In the acute form there is, some of tightness or pressure across the chest, with considerable whoesing, severe cough and expectoration. This is at first a white glairy mucous, which after a time becomes purulent. The patient in some cases is obliged to sit up in bed, the oppression across the chest is so great; the akin is elamny and prostration rapidly sets in, and in fatal cases there will be mattering delirium, come and death.
